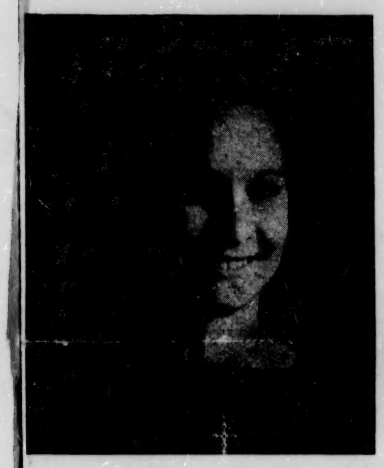
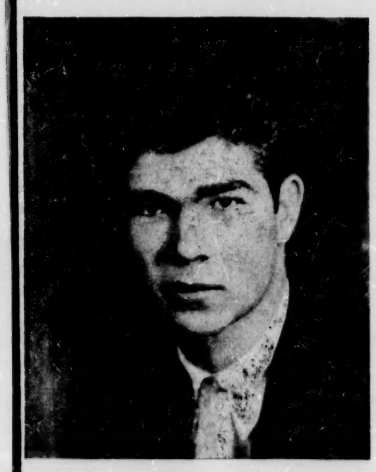
The 1938 Graduating Class of Barium Springs

BRYCE STINSON: Just stuck to his knitting and caught up with his older brother and is graduating with him.



CLEO SLUDER: Entered in 1924 from Thomasville, along with two older sisters. A picture made of the three Sluder girls shows a small girl holding a much smaller sister by the hand, and this smaller sister holding a doll-baby by the hand. Well, the doll-baby is Cleo, and she is about the tallest of the three now. She has been a consistent student and a most satisfactory young lady. She plans to go back and look up the rest of the family in Thomasville when she graduates.



HUGH McCRIMMON: Entered from Carthage in 1925. He is a boy who just grew up overnight. One day he was too light for the 100-pound football team, and almost by the next day, was one of the regulars on the varsity. He was the captain of the basketball team, and one of the best players in football. He never had an injury in his four years of sports, which included not only basketball and football, but track and a little wrestling. And then after the season was over one year, he slipped off the back porch in the snow and broke his leg! Hugh goes to Davidson this fall and you will hear some more from him.

MORE GRADUATES ON PAGE TWO

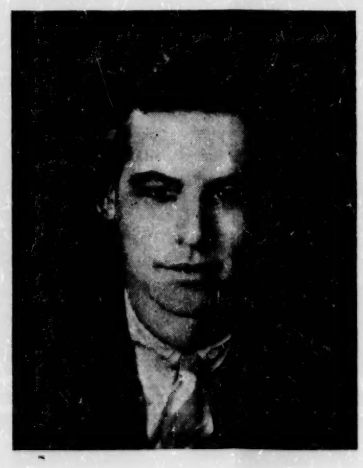
DOROTHY WEEKS: Entered from Wilmington in 1932. She is the first of a family of four to graduate. She has not quite made up her mind whether to grab a job, or try to get some additional business training. If a good job shows up that will very likely get the nod. We don't know what will happen, but we do know that if Dorothy accepts a job, she will give satisfaction in it.

EUGENE SHANNON: Entered from Gastonia in 1924. He started in the Baby Cottage, and wound up in Jennie Gilmer. He has held pretty nearly every job on the campus, starting out as office boy, and ending up as banker. He has handled every job in a way to make a person regret to give him up. A good student, a good worker, a good athlete. He plans to go to Davidson this year, and you will no doubt hear more of him there. Gene organized a football team at the Baby Cottage when he was there and he has been at it ever since.

NELLIE JOHNSON: Entered from Davidson in 1926. She is the last of that fast-running set of Johnsons. The boys graduated last year. Nellie has definite plans made to go to Flora Macdonald. She is a good student and we believe she will make a most satisfactory career for herself in college. Some friends that Nellie has made during her stay at Barium are making this college course possible.

JOE SAVAGE: The grand-pappy of the class, entered from Immanuel Church, Wilmington, in 1923. Joe is a boy who refused to let any sort of handicap keep him down. He will graduate well up in his class and hopes to go to Appalachian this fall. He was voted "the most valuable player on the football team" last season. He did not need a nighname.

MARTHA ADAMS: From Gastonia, entering in 1934. is finishing well toward the top of her class, and arrangements have been made for her to enter Flora Macdonald. We know she will be a satisfactory student there. Everything she attempts she goes at it seriously and with a determination to make good.

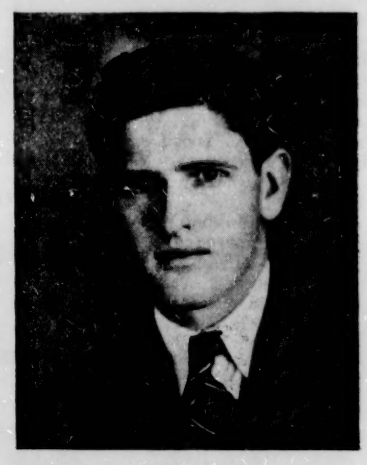


EUGENE BOSWORTH: Entered from Shelby in 1928. A quiet little chap who does not make any great to-do about anything, but if you should happen to get in a wrestling match with him, you would very quickly make up your mind to be defeated, because Gene has consistently convinced his opponents in wrestling that he was the best man, covering a four-year career. He has won his state championship in three different weights, commencing at 108 pounds. Gene is also a consistent football player. He has not made up his mind yet about a college career. And whatever school he goes to will get a good student and athlete.

LUCILLE NORRIS: Entered from Fayetteville in 1931. Lucille hopes to go to college for a couple of years anyway, and then hopes to take training. Another good nurse in the making.

MARLEY SIGMON: Entered from Taylorsville in 1934. He is the biggest boy in the class. He is quite a football player, quite a wrestler, quite a track man, and he can handle himself in a basketball game, in addition to being pretty good at marbles! He has shown steady improvement in classroom work from the beginning of his high school career. He hopes to enter Appalachian this fall.

MARIE SMITH: Entered in 1930, from Winston-Salem, Waughtown Church. She is the first break in another big family of Smiths. We call them the "Whiteheaded Smiths". Marie has worked at the Baby Cottage for several years. She has been so efficient there and needed so much that she has not had the chance for athletics and other outside activities that some of the girls have had. We don't know how many recommendations Marie might need for any work she may undertake, but the affection that the very young children have for her is one of the strongest recommendations anyone could have. She plans to go to Winston-Salem after graduation.



ROBERT STINSON: One of the home town boys, did not get to Barium in time to do much in athletics. However, he played football on the 125-pound team, and was a regular on the wrestling team, making his letter in that sport.

ELMEREE SMITH: The second of that big family of Smiths from Pink Hill to finish up. Elmeree has been a leader in everything. She was captain of the basketball team and a most efficient one. She was a guard. Our teams won a little over half of their games, but in no game did the other team run up any big score. And Elmeree is mainly the cause of it. She was not only a good guard herself, but she worked so well with the other guards that made a real team. We predict that Elmeree will always be a good team worker, and will be successful in whatever she undertakes.

HAZEL MILLER: The last of the Miller family, from Mooresville, entered in 1926. She has been an extra good student and such a satisfactory girl that she apparently has no difficulty in being accepted for training as a nurse. She will enter one of the Charlotte Hospitals in September. If you should have to go a hospital and draw her as a nurse, it wouldn't be bad luck at all.

Some Cottage News

SYNOD'S COTTAGE

Dear Friends,

We hope you have all enjoyed as nice an Easter as we. Miss McDade took her Christian Endeavorers on an Easter egg hunt Friday. Our teachers also took us on one.

Fifteen of our boys joined the church on Easter Sunday.

Miss Taylor took all the boys who made A on deportment to see "Adventures of Tom Sawyer." We certainly enjoyed it.

School will be out Friday, but we have lots to worry about yet for examinations are just beginning.

Quite a few of our boys have received packages from friends and relatives this week.

Mrs. Conrad Johnston of Mooresville brought us a great many funny papers. They have been enjoyed very much and we wish to thank her for them.

—The Thirty-Three Wigglers

RUMPLE HALL

Hi Folks,

Another month has rolled around and here we are again for a chat with you.

We hope you have all had a nice Easter. We surely did.

Elizabeth Cobb's clothing people came to see her Saturday and brought us a basket of colored eggs and a big box of cookies. We took our eggs and had an egg hunt and had such a good time. The cookies were so good, too. We do thank you, friends.

We are so proud of our church. It looks just like new. We appreciate all that our friends have done to help make it so.

Several of our girls had visits from some of their people Sunday. Elizabeth Robard's and Margaret Presnell's mothers came; Bertha Lee Broome's sister with some friends and Anna Sue Wilson's sisters and father came.

Whee! Just four more days of school and then vacation. That's music to our ears but we do hate to see all the teachers leave, also the seniors.

Myrtle Mills and Sarah Parcell entered a music contest at Gastonia and won. They went to Charlotte Saturday to play again but have not heard from that yet. We wish them luck.

Four of our girls are going to Mitchell to sing in a contest and we hope they will win.

So long until next month.

—The Rumple Hall Girls

INFIRMARY

We had a nice Easter egg hunt last Saturday. Sadie Mills found the most colored eggs and we all found lots of candy eggs as they were out where we could find them.

Miss Woods, matron of Howard Cottage, is with us this week and Sunday her sister and niece came to see her. The niece brought along her twin boys. They would about fit the Baby Cottage but did not want to stay with us.

Billy Starling came in to see us. We had not seen him for five years. When he left he was not very big but now he seems to want to outgrow Mr. Johnston. Billy looked well and nappy and tells us he is doing well selling Fords.

We have had one case of measles and have two more here for inspection. If you have to make lots of noise when you have them they are very bad; but if you do not, they may not have them at all.

We are very happy to tell the world we have had less sickness this winter than in any of the past 12 years. Only twelve were here in March and most of them were leftovers from February.

ANNIE LOUISE

Howdy Everybody,

Seems only yesterday you all were yelping for the news and here it is time to write again.

We have had a lot of rainy weather and the flowers are blooming.

We have painted the beds in our dormitories.

One of our little girls, Martha Price, entered the music contest in Gastonia and she won there, so she went to Charlotte Saturday and we hope she wins there.

Mr. Cross, Mrs. Coffey and Mrs. Halwey sent us some candy and fruit for Easter. We sure did enjoy it. Thanks to all of you.

Our matron, Mrs. McNatt, gave us an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon and we sure did have fun.

Here it's time for school to be out and it seems we just started only two months ago. Time skips along pretty fast, though. We only have this week of school and then our vacation will be here.

The grammar school pupils started their exams today but the high school will not start theirs until Wednesday.

The music club, of which Miss Green is instructor, gave a recital Friday night and one of our girls, Martha Price, played her contest piece.

We have had some repair work done on our church and it sure looks mighty good. We thank all who made this possible.

You will hear from us next month.

The 1938 Grads

The April issue of The Messenger is one of the most popular of the year, and it has less reading matter in it.

The thing that makes it popular is the pictures of the graduating class. Next to meeting the graduates themselves, seeing their pictures in The Messenger is the next best thing. We want to introduce this class to you. It is not as large as some recent classes. Nineteen in all will get diplomas. Three of these really belong to last year's class. On account of their extreme youth, they had planned to continue one more year at Barium, but during the summer made other plans. They have completed the necessary work for diplomas, and will either receive them or have them mailed to them at this commencement season.

Besides these there are the same number of boys and girls graduating. Of the eight boys, two of them are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Stinson who work at Barium and live here. They have been at Barium for their entire high school careers.

The other six boys are rather unusual in that they have spent practically their entire school existence at Barium.

David Spencer had been in school one year and Gene Bosworth had been in school two years when they entered. All the rest of them started from "scratch" at Barium.

Joe Savage is the dean of the class, having entered Barium in 1923, but before he had been here a year, he was joined by Eugene Shannon, Marley Sigmon, Cleo Sluder, Arnim East and Sara Fort. Then a year later, Hugh McCrimmon showed up, and so on.

Martha Adams was the latest comer in 1934. Of the 17 Orphanage children in the class, they have been at Barium a total of 178 years.

This class as a whole has excelled in scholarship. A larger proportion of this class is headed toward college than the average. Five boys and four girls are going if the way seems clear, and the way seems to be clearing for most of them at least.

So much for the class in general. Now for their individual introduction to you:

CAMP WILL BE BUILT ON BANKS OF CATAWBA

Men's Club of Charlotte Second Church Selected Project.—Underwrite Costs

Did you ever want something that you knew you could not afford? You would try to put it out of your mind, but somehow it would keep coming back and coming back until it would almost wear a blister on your thinking apparatus! Well, we've been in that sort of a fix. You know we have written from year to year about our camping parties. One year we picked up and went to Mrytle Beach - a most ambitious undertaking - and then to other places nearer by. That's a habit we could not drop. It was a sort of a debt we owed to the children at Barium who did not have anywhere to go during the summer.

In recent years we have just run out of places to go and the only thing we could do was to have a sort of half-way camp right on the own home grounds here, and that lacked a good deal of being what the camping party wanted.

This put us to thinking. If we just had a camp of our own out on the Catawba River at a place where we know it is safe, and where there are more enticing things to do than in any other spot in the whole county! Well, that's the thing we are talking about. We kept wanting it, and knew all the time we couldn't afford it. So we put it back in the back of our heads just like you would say: "Get thee behind me, Satan".

From time to time people would ask us things that we wanted, and we didn't dare mention that, because there were other things needed so badly at Barium that is just didn't seem right to mention anything that had to do with that play, ahead of these other things. For instance, there is Alexander Cottage that needs to be replaced; there are repairs that are always staring us in the face; there's a lot of money to be spent on our water system this year, and that just has to be done.

Well, back this winter a man came to see us and asked us what we wanted. We described all these other things, but none of them seemed to click with this man; and then we mentioned this camp, and right then things commenced to happen. This man invited us down to talk it over with the Cabinet of his Club; and that we did. We didn't just talk camp, we talked a lot of things, but this man evidently knew his Club better than we did because they latched right on to that camp idea and decided to present it to the whole Club, and this in due time was done and the Club took up the idea most enthusiastically. This was the Fellowship Club of the Second Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, and the man who started us off was Mr. W. S. Cunningham.

This Club agreed to underwrite this undertaking and look after the financing up to a certain amount. Then the next job was getting the land. We thought at first that the land belonged to the Southern Power Company. We contacted them and got their approval toward a plan that we had in mind, but then we found that the land didn't belong to them but belonged to four big corporations that owned it jointly. When the matter was put up to them, we found them just as enthusiastic about the idea as the Fellowship Club; and we now have in our possession a lease signed by more big men than the Declaration of Independence - or apparently so - and work has commenced on the camp.

We can't begin to tell you all about this camp or what it's going to be and what it's going to mean. We will have to save that for future articles in The Messenger. But if this summer you should be riding around in Iredell County and should go out on old No. 10, the road that used to be the main highway from Statesville to Newton, and should cross the bridge on the Catawba and look just up the river on the right-hand bank you will see something that will please you. It will be one of the niftiest camps that anybody ever had and about the happiest bunch of youngsters enjoying that camp that you could find anywhere in the world. Sometime we want to put in The Messenger (we may have to get out an extra edition to do it) the name of every person who has given this idea a boost: and then we would have several editions of The Messenger to tell about all of the people that this is going to make happy.

What shall its name be? Well, we haven't come to that yet, but taking a tip from the Radio Programs we will entertain suggestions.

ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF GRADUATING CLASS

DAVID SPENCER: Entered from Hickory in 1927. He was the protege of the Newton Kiwanis Club. He was so little that you had to look at him twice to see anything. He hasn't acquired so very much size in the 11 years that he has been here, but manages to give an exceedingly good account of himself, nevertheless. He has been an outstanding football and basketball player, wrestler and track man. He was twice voted "the most valuable player in basketball". While piling up these athletic honors Dave also managed to make high marks in classroom work. He is headed for Davidson College.

ARNIM EAST: Entered in 1924. Along with a big family of Easts and Wests who entered the same year. Arnim was planning to take another year on account of his age but when he came back last August and all the Wests and all the Easts had gone, but Arnim, he just could not stand the loneliness. His geography looked too blank. Arnim has been on the farm ever since that time, and we know that he has been putting in many a good, hard lick. Of the East family, two of them became expert linotype operators. Arnim was taking training in the same thing but wanted a little more outdoors than this sort of work allowed a person.

SARA FORT: Entered from Oxford in 1924. She and her sister, Irene, were so nearly the same size and so much alike that a good many people thought they were twins and this accounts for Sara graduating so young. She started to school along with her older sister and kept right up with her all through her school career. She has already one year at Appalachian, as she finished all her high school work except the final examination last year.

GEORGE FAISON: Entered in 1933. He is one of those who had planned to stay another year at Barium, but during the summer he secured a good job and so has finished up his work by taking the necessary examinations.

LITTLE JOE'S CHURCH HAS NEW APPEARANCE TODAY

Mrs. J. A. Hartness, Raleigh, Paid for Inside Painting.- Other Friends Help

When the springtime rolls around and flowers and trees put on new clothes, everybody gets the habit. That's why Easter is the time for dressing up.

We didn't do so much dressing up personally at Barium Springs, but Little Joe's Church took on an Easter appearance. For quite some time we have known that the seats in the Church needed fixing up. We need every article of space, and when one seat gets out of commission, it is a real calamity.

Well, back in February arrangements were made to put in some new seats and to work over the the balance. While this was being done, or rather planned for, several of the Regents visited us; and one of them, Mrs. J. A. Hartness, of Raleigh, offered to paint the interior of the Church so that that would be in keeping with the improved appearance of the seats. So this was done.

Along with this, a change was made in the lights, and when all this was done the Church had the appearance of a person with a brand new suit of clothes on, and a new hat but with old shoes. So the congregation of the Church took up right there and had the floors sanded and painted, and on Easter Sunday we moved in and did we enjoy our beautiful little Church in its Easter clothes!

We thank everyone who had a part in this work. Especially do we thank Mrs. Hartness who really made it all possible by her paying for the painting—the biggest job of all.

We are not through yet. Rev. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hanna (Mr. Hanna was supply pastor at Little Joe's for several months) heard of what was going on and made a generous personal donation toward the purchase of a carpet for the aisles and pulpit, and before many months roll around, that addition will be made also.

There are three material elements that go to make up a happy church: The congregation, the preacher, and the building. Little Joe's Church is most happy in all three of these things.

Speaking of the congregation, it isn't confined to the church members. Somehow everyone who ever has any connection with Little Joe's Church wants to do something for it. The painters who did the work in the church contributed toward the work on the floor—so did the carpenter who worked on the seats, and many others.

Somehow the spirit of Little Joe still lives.

What Mrs. Hartness, Rev. and Mrs. Hanna and a good many other friends are doing for the church brings to mind a good many other "specials" of the past fiscal year. The dining room was painted by the Concord First Auxiliary at a cost of $250.00; Wilmington Presbyterial made a special donation of $157.90 to purchase a cook stove and utensils for the re-instated Domestic Science Department; one circle in the Trinity Avenue Auxiliary gave a complete set of new shades for the Woman's Building; the Big Brothers Bible Class of the Durham First Church provided an allotment of 144 shades for Jennie Gilmer and Howard Cottages; the Charlotte Second Auxiliary bought new furniture and some rugs for the reception room on the second Floor of the Woman's Building; special contributions were received to fix up some memorial rooms in the Woman's Building, and a great many other things were done by other organizations. All of this is encouraging and is deeply appreciated.

GOOD NEWS

As the 1938-1939 fiscal year starts, there are several bits of "good news" that are being passed along for the commendation of the Synod of North Carolina, and which also will be for the material benefit of the Orphanage:

The Adult Bible Class of the Marston Sunday School in Mecklenburg Presbytery started the Offering-per-month plan on the first Sunday in March and has already forwarded the March and April Offerings.

Immanuel Sunday School, in Wilmington Presbytery, has notified the Orphanage that it is going to give all of one Sunday's Offering out of each quarter to Barium Springs, and they add "of course, this is just to start with. We hope to be able, in a short time, to give more freely and more often". The Beginners' Department of that Sunday School has been regularly giving for a long while.

Three Circles in the Myers Park Auxiliary have each voted to clothe a child at the Orphanage during 1938-1939, which will be over and above their regular giving.

$100 SUNDAY SCHOOLS

In the closing days of March, 12 additional Sunday Schools "made" the $100.00 Club, which is composed of Sunday Schools that regularly give $100.00 to the Orphanage in the course of a 12-month period, exclusive of that which is given at Thanksgiving-time. Before the books were closed on the 1937-1938 year, a number of other Sunday Schools had been enrolled in that Club, and the final tabulation in the $100.00 group will be given in the May issue of The Messenger.

Sunday Schools entering in March were New Bern in Albemarle Presbytery; Hickory, Mooresville First and Thyatira in Concord; Jackson Springs and McPherson in Fayetteville; Roanoke Rapids and Trinity Avenue in Granville; Lincolnton and New Hope in Kings Mountain; Sanford in Orange, and Mocksville in Winston-Salem.

BASKETBALL AWARDS PRESENTED LAST MONTH

Wrestlers Also Given Letters.- Captains Announced and "Best" Players Selected

An innovation at Barium Springs this year was the basketball and wrestling banquet, which was a very delightful and informal affair staged at the dining hall of Rumple Hall on March 25th. For a good many years it has been customary to honor the various football teams, but in the future the basketball aggregations and the wrestling performers will be honored. The track contingent will be included in the football banquet each December.

Several interesting announcements were made during the course of the after-dinner presentations and remarks. J. D Beshears has been elected captain of the Barium wrestlers for the third successive year and will endeavor to lead his teammates next winter to a third successive state championship under his piloting, which would make six championships in a row for the Barium matmen. Lee Spencer and Robert Mills have been elected co-captains of the varsity boys' basketball team. The girls did not elect a captain, but will appoint one before each game.

Grace Coppedge was selected by her teammates as the best all-'round basketball player, which included inspiration. co-operation and teamwork, as well as ability. Dave Spencer was accorded this distinction for the second year by his teammates. He was high scorer of the team and high scorer in the entire South Piedmont Conference with a total of 175 points. The names of these two players will be engraved on permanent trophies kept in the dining room. These trophies were given by friends and these are the second names to be inscribed on them.

Elmeree Smith, captain of the girls' sextette, gave out the awards to members of the eighth grade girls' basketball team; Miss Irene McDade, teacher in the schools and former basketball player for the Orphanage, presented letters to the girls' varsity members; Ralph Spencer, former Barium wrestler and now worker at the Orphanage, awarded the wrestling letters; Hugh McCrimmon, captain of the boys' 1938 five, presented letters to the 100-pound team; Dave Spencer, high scorer of the South Piedmont conference, awarded the 125-pound former star for Barium and Davteam letters, and Walter Fraley. idson and now coach at Episcopal High, Alexandria, Va., presented the boys' varsity letters.

The affair was closed with presentations of cups and announcement of best players by Jos. B. Johnston, Superintendent of the Orphanage. He officially presented the cup to the 100-pound state champion football eleven; the loving cup awarded the boys' varsity basketball team for winning the state Orphanage championship the loving cup awarded to Barium's state champion wrestlers and which they hope to make permanently theirs next February.
